Visit the UNESCO-listed Auschwitz-Birkenau Museum. This sobering half-day trip will have a lasting impact, commemorating the lives of those who died in the extermination camps during the Holocaust of World War II. Auschwitz –Birkenau is the site of the most notorious mass murder in the history of humanity. Its remains have been memorialized and continue to serve as a mirror of the human soul and a tool for self- reflection. All over the world, Auschwitz is seen as a symbol of terror, genocide, and the Holocaust. Established in 1940 by the Nazis during WWII. Auschwitz was an enormous labor camp and death factory. The complex consists of two main camps: Auschwitz I – the administrative centre; and Auschwitz II /Birkenau/ - an extermination camp.

Auschwitz –Birkenau tour gives you the opportunity to hear about the Holocaust and to see one of the most terrifying, yet also touching places in the World.
